Jane Frisch, Director

The world thinks about love this month. We desire to think about love daily. The quote above is from 1 Corinthians 13. Another phrase....Love never fails. That word. Fail. Ugggghhhh.

We delight in every student here at MCCP! They are all so unique and have amazing insights into things we may not think of. Just this week, I've seen an awesome block ramp that a fire truck was having an adventure on. A couple weeks ago, there was a fabulous "snowball fight" with socks in Pre K 2. Each day, your students are learning cooperation and exercising their imaginations to the max. Oh, and learning academics as well. Snowman shape matching, winter animal studies, writing their names, and much more. Pre K 1 has a hungry squirrel friend enjoying their handmade delicious treats!

Not only that, students are learning to love their neighbor, they are being reminded to obey their parents and leaders, and learning from the Bible, the Ultimate Truth Book. So no failing here! Except for our love. And God's. Both never fail.
